

---

APPENDIX II: Environmental Policy

A&IM Manufacturing (M) Sdn Bhd is committed to conduct all activities in an environmentally responsible manner and is committed to abide by its Environmental Policy, which states that:

- Conducting our manufacturing activities in a manner that is committed to recycling, conservation of natural resources
- Putting on our best commitment on prevention of pollution
- Promote environmental awareness to all employees, suppliers & interested parties
- Complying with environmental legal regulations and other requirements
- Communicated to all interested parties and available to the public
- Provides a management programme for reviewing the objectives and targets achievement and performance
- Continually improving our environmental management system